

I would like the current guidelines and rules to stay in place because I believe that a federal program elected essentially by the people of America should serve the interests of the people not the businesses that seek a monopoly to serve their own interests.

Thank you